

DTCM Spring Clinic April 21, 2012 Limit 15 Dogs - Entry Fee $75

The Dog Tracking Club of Maine is holding a tracking clinic for beginner dogs on Saturday, April 21, 2012. If you are just starting with a new dog, never have tracked before, or would like to advance your skills, this clinic is for you. It will be held on or near the property of Doreen Metcalf (Timberidge Farm), 221 Simpson Road, Saco, ME 04072. This one-day program will provide an opportunity to learn the fundamentals of tracking to get you started with the basics to work toward a tracking title. Instruction includes a basic understanding of scenting, equipment needed, techniques for training and motivating your dog to track, article recognition and tracklaying.

Directions and detailed instructions will be sent to registrants in advance of the clinic. The program begins promptly at 8:30 a.m., rain or shine. Space is limited so get your entry in early. Alternate date if unsafe weather conditions occur is Sunday, April 22, 2012. Instructor: Robert Cuzner, AKC Tracking Judge.

Bring your own lunch and food and water for your dogs. Coffee, donuts, water and sodas will be provided for participants.
